

CREDENTIALS

Certificated

All certificated personnel must have a valid credential and shall not be assigned outside the scope of their credential or field(s) of study except as allowed by law. The county requires the district to remove from the classroom any person whose credential has temporarily expired. State law does not allow the district to pay a teacher who does not have a valid credential.